

Cuba is still unbeaten in U-19 Volleyball World Championship

Tunisia, August 24 (RHC) – The Cuban Volleyball team defeated Taiwan and now sums three wins and no losses in the U-19 Volleyball World Championship in Tunisia.

The Cubans started the game by winning first set 25-18, but they lost focus in the second one and lost it 17-25. The 3rd and 4th sets were easily dominated by Cuba 25-19 and 25-20 respectively.

During the game, the Cubans showed superiority in every aspect of the game; the offensive performance was led by Jose Miguel Gutierrez with 18 points, Victor Andreu (15), and Eduardo Hernandez (11).

Cuba is currently leading group A of the competition with 8 points, Belarus and Tunisia are tied with 3 points but they have played one less game than Cuba, while Brazil is sitting 4th, but they have only played one game so far.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/deportes/199914-cuba-is-still-unbeaten-in-u-19-volleyball-world-championship>

Radio Habana Cuba