

First Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs to start tour of Southern African countries

Havana, September 2 (RHC)-- Deputy Minister First of Foreign Affairs of Cuba, Marcelino Medina González, will start, this Wednesday 4 September, a tour of Southern Africa.

According to the Foreign Ministry website, the tour will include work visits to South Africa, the Republic of Zimbabwe, the United Republic of Tanzania, and the Republic of Rwanda.

During the trip, Medina will lead the bilateral political dialogue with the respective foreign ministries and will be received by authorities and personalities of the different countries he will visit. Issues of common interest of the bilateral agendas and the international scene will be discussed during the tour.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/200794-first-deputy-minister-of-foreign-affairs-to-start-tour-of-southern-african-countries>

Radio Habana Cuba