

IAAF will be rewarding athletes at World Championship

Monaco, September 18 (RHC) - The International Athletic Federation (IAAF) announced that every athlete who breaks a world record in the upcoming Doha 2019 World Championship will receive a reward of $100 thousand.

Through an official communiqué, the IAAF informed that the companies TDK and Qatar National Bank will sponsor the program, as part of a stimulus to participating athletes.

The IAAF, with a $7.53 million fund, will reward the 8 best qualified athletes of every competition of the World Championship that will start next September 27.
