

Transportation unions end work stoppage in Ecuador

Quito, October 4 (RHC)-- After two days of strikes and protests across the nation that the Lenin Moreno government reacted to by declaring a State of Exception, transportation unions say they are ending their work stoppage immediately.

Transportation union leaders announced Friday evening they had "completed their goal" in relation to the now two-day strike across Ecuador, and were ending their work stoppage.

This is a developing story; more information forthcoming.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/204008-transportation-unions-end-work-stoppage-in-ecuador>

Radio Habana Cuba