

Chilean president suspends Metro fare increase

Santiago de Chile, October 19 (RHC)-- Chilean President Sebastián Piñera has announced that he is suspending the controversial subway fare increase after one week of intense protests against the measure.

The Chilean government has also declared a curfew for Santiago de Chile, from 2200 to 0700 hours.

This is a developing story. Please watch for more news in the coming hours.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/205357-chilean-president-suspends-metro-fare-increase>

Radio Habana Cuba