

Chilean photojournalist Albertina Martínez Burgos killed in Santiago

Santiago de Chile, November 25 (RHC)-- In Chile, photojournalist Albertina Martínez Burgos was found stabbed and beaten to death at her home in the capital Santiago de Chile.

The 38-year-old journalist was documenting repression against anti-government protesters at the time of her death, particularly violence against women.

It's reported that her recent photographs of the ongoing massive demonstrations against Chilean President Sebastián Piñera have also been stolen.
