

Three women accuse U.S. diplomat of sexual misconduct

Washington, December 3 (RHC)-- Three women have accused U.S. ambassador to the European Union Gordon Sondland of forcibly kissing them or exposing himself to them — and then retaliating against them professionally after they rejected his unwanted and nonconsensual sexual advances.

All three accounts are from before Sondland, a wealthy Oregon hotel magnate, was named ambassador, a post he received after donating a million dollars to Trump's inauguration. Trump himself has been accused of rape, sexual assault or sexual harassment by more than 20 women.
