

Pentagon deploys 1st low-yield nuclear warhead-armed submarine

Washington, February 2 (RHC)-- The Pentagon has deployed the first submarine armed with a low-yield Trident nuclear warhead in a move that anti-nuclear activists say increases the threat of nuclear war.

The USS Tennessee is currently patrolling the Atlantic carrying a nuclear warhead with a third of the explosive power of the atomic bomb the U.S. dropped on Hiroshima.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/213454-pentagon-deploys-1st-low-yield-nuclear-warhead-armed-submarine>

Radio Habana Cuba