

Brazilian Travel Agencies Look at Cuba Destination

Havana, May 2 (RHC) – Directors and representatives of major Brazilian travel agencies arrived Thursday in Havana to learn about the Cuban destination and its main products for Brazilian travelers.

The delegation, made up of members of the Brazilian Association of Travel Agencies and specialized journalists was welcomed at the Jose Marti International Airport by Cuban deputy tourism minister Xiomara Martinez.

The visitors will take part in the Cuban Tourism Fair, starting May 6th, which is an opportunity to exchange with their Cuban counterparts and have a first-hand look at the Caribbean destination.

The Brazilian delegation will hold the 23rd International Meeting of the Association of Brazilian Travel Agencies until May 7th at Varadero Tourist Resort.

The agenda also includes meetings with Cuban tourism authorities, travel agents and hotel group executives.

Radio Habana Cuba