

Supercyclone prompts mass evacuations in Bangladesh and India

New Delhi, May 21 (RHC)-- Authorities in eastern India and Bangladesh struggled to evacuate hundreds of thousands of people as Supercyclone Amphan hammers the region. Evacuation efforts have been hampered by social distancing and other rules aimed at preventing the further spread of the coronavirus.

Meanwhile, thousands of migrant workers are still on the roads trying to get home after India's nationwide coronavirus lockdown left them jobless.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/223424-supercyclone-prompts-mass-evacuations-in-bangladesh-and-india>

Radio Habana Cuba