

Protests against racism continue across Europe

Madrid, June 7 (RHC)-- Thousands of people took to the streets of Barcelona, Madrid and Rome in support of the Black Lives Matter movement, which has drawn large protests against racism and police brutality around the world.

The rally in Rome's sprawling People's Square was noisy but peaceful, with the majority of protesters wearing masks to protect against coronavirus. More demonstrations were being held Sunday across the United Kingdom, including one outside the U.S. Embassy in London.
