World Health Organization warns COVID-19 taking toll on health workers across Africa

Geneva, July 27 (RHC)-- Over 10,000 health workers across 40 African countries have been infected by the coronavirus.

Morocco has locked down major cities, including Casablanca, Marrakech and Fez, as recent spikes have been reported across the country.

Radio Habana Cuba