Havana, September 21 (RHC)-- Cuban President Miguel Díaz-Canel Bermúdez, will address this Tuesday the general debate of the 75th session of the United Nations General Assembly, according to the Cubaminrex site.

The press release adds that Cuba will be the seventh speaker of the morning session of the opening day, which this year will take place virtually due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

More than 170 heads of state and government are expected to participate in the meeting.

In addition to the President's keynote address, Cuba is expected to speak at high-level events including the one on the UN's 75th anniversary, the 25th anniversary of the IV World Conference on Women, the International Day for the Total Elimination of Nuclear Weapons, and at the Summit on Biodiversity.
