

U.S. imposes harsh new sanctions on Iranian oil

U.S. imposes harsh new sanctions on Iranian oil. (Photo: Democracy Now)

Washington, October 27 (RHC)-- The Donald Trump White House has imposed sweeping new counterterrorism sanctions on Iran's oil sector in a move designed to make it harder for Joe Biden to undo sanctions if he is elected president.

The comes just weeks after the Treasury Department essentially locked Iran out of the global financial system by imposing sanctions on 18 Iranian banks.

Radio Habana Cuba