

U.S. court overturns Arkansas law requiring pledge not to boycott Israel

U.S. court overturns Arkansas law requiring pledge not to boycott Israel

Little Rock, February 18 (RHC)-- In the United States, a federal appeals court has thrown out an Arkansas state law prohibiting government contractors from participating in boycotts of Israel, ruling it violates their

First Amendment rights.

In a statement celebrating the ruling, the Council on American-Islamic Relations said: “Just as African-Americans had the constitutional right to participate in the Montgomery Bus Boycott, and just as anti-apartheid activists had the constitutional right to boycott South Africa’s government, every American has the constitutional right to boycott the Israeli government over its human rights abuses of Palestinians.”

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/248043-us-court-overturns-arkansas-law-requiring-pledge-not-to-boycott-israel>

Radio Habana Cuba