

Cuba to Host International Seminar on Tourism and Journalism

Havana, June 9 (NNN-Prensa Latina) -- With world development of tourism as a backdrop, the 9th International Seminar on Journalism and Tourism will be held in Havana from June 23rd through the 27th.

President of the Cuban media section, specializing in tourism, Hilda Prieto, said the seminar had been organized by the Union of Cuban Journalists (UPEC) and its venue would be the International Journalism Institute Jose Marti in Havana.

The host nation will be represented by journalists of Cuban media outlets in Havana and correspondents at tourist destinations.
