

Pakistani Taliban Launch New Attack Near Airport

Islamabad, June 10 (RHC)-- In Pakistan, the Taliban has attacked a training facility near the Karachi airport, less than two days after their attack on the airport left at least 30 people dead. There were no immediate reports of casualties.

Earlier today, the Pakistani military said it conducted air strikes in the northwest, killing at least 15 people they claimed were militants.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/25395-pakistani-taliban-launch-new-attack-near-airport>

Radio Habana Cuba