Former Brazilian President Dilma Rousseff is home in Porto Alegre after discharge from hospital

Porto Alegre, May 26 (RHC)-- Former Brazilian President Dilma Rousseff returned Tuesday to her home in Porto Alegre, capital of the state of Rio Grande do Sul, following medical tests at a hospital after complaining of pains.

The former president's press office reported that Rousseff was discharged at around 15:30 local time and is in good health. "Nothing was recorded in the examinations conducted under the supervision of physician Paulo Caramori," the source noted.

The former Brazilian president (2011-2016), vaccinated on March 22nd against COVID-19, made her most recent public appearance on May 13th, at a ceremony celebrating the 700th anniversary of the founding of Mexico City.
