Michael Flynn, with his buddy Donald Trump, has called for a military coup d'état to overthrow the U.S. government

Dallas, June 1 (RHC)-- Ex-President Trump's former national security adviser, Michael Flynn, has called for a military coup d'état to overthrow the U.S. government -- similar to the February coup in Burma that killed hundreds of people.

Michael Flynn is a former U.S. Army general who was pardoned by Trump for lying to the FBI. He was speaking at a pro-Trump conference recently held in Dallas and convened by QAnon conspiracy theorists and other Trump supporters.

Flynn fielded a question from an audience member who identified himself as a U.S. Marine. The audience member asked: "I want to know why what happened in Myanmar can't happen here. Michael Flynn answered: "No reason. I mean, it should happen here. No reason. Right? That's right."

Michael Flynn now denies he was endorsing a coup, but he affirmed that he strongly believes that Donald Trump won the election and the Electoral College vote... and should be president instead of Joe Biden.
