

Raul Castro Holds Official Talks with Angola's Jose Eduardo dos Santos

Havana, June 19 (RHC) — Cuban President Raul Castro received his Angolan counterpart Jose Eduardo dos Santos who is paying an official visit to Cuba.

During the meeting, which was attended by Angolan and Cuban government officials, the two heads of state corroborated the good bilateral relations between their countries, and also addressed issues of international interest.

Previously, dos Santos toured the containers terminal at the Special Development Zone in the western Mariel harbor, which is expected to become the main Cuban foreign trade hub.
