

Donald Trump pays tribute to insurrectionist shot dead when breaking into Congress

Trump praises woman who broke into Congress?

Washington, October 12 (RHC)-- Donald Trump has paid tribute to Ashli Babbitt, the 35-year-old Trump supporter who was shot dead inside the Capitol during the January 6th insurrection.

Babbitt was shot by a Capitol Police officer as she tried to climb through a window to the Speaker's Lobby, where lawmakers had sought refuge from the violent mob. An Air Force veteran, Ashli Babbitt was supporter of the pro-Trump QAnon conspiracy theory.

In a prerecorded video message to mark what would have been her birthday, Trump called Babbitt a "truly incredible person."
