

Israel Launches More Airstrikes on Gaza Strip

Gaza City, July 5 (RHC)-- The Israeli regime has launched several more airstrikes against the besieged Gaza Strip as Palestinian protesters slam Tel Aviv's aggression against the enclave. On Friday, Israel continued its airstrikes targeting the town of Rafah in the southern part of Gaza. There were no immediate reports of casualties.

Meanwhile, in the Jabalia camp, located 4 kilometers north of Gaza City, a demonstration was held against Tel Aviv's attacks. Gaza has been blockaded since 2007, a situation that has caused a decline in the standard of living, unprecedented levels of unemployment, and unrelenting poverty.

The apartheid regime of Israel denies about 1.7 million people in Gaza their basic rights, such as freedom of movement, jobs that pay proper wages, and adequate healthcare and education.

Over 160 Palestinians, including women and children, were killed and about 1,200 others were injured in Israel's eight-day offensive on the coastal enclave, which ended on November 21, 2012.
