The U.S. Israel, Bahrain and the United Arab Emirates are holding five days of joint military exercises for the first time in the Red Sea.

Ramallah, November 13 (RHC)-- The United States, Israel, Bahrain and the United Arab Emirates are holding five days of joint military exercises for the first time in the Red Sea.

This comes just a year after Bahrain and UAE normalized relations with Israel, which has floated the idea of forming a NATO-type alliance to target Iran.
