

Luna Manzanares releases new single from her latest album 'Luna Nueva'

Luna Manzanares releases 'Todo de mí'

Havana, Feb. 15 (RHC)-- Cuban singer-songwriter Luna Manzanares has just released the tune 'Todo de mí', on occasion of February 14th –International Day of Love and Friendship.

In statements to the press, the popular artist noted that the single is included in her latest album 'Luna Nueva', which marked her debut as a songwriter.

She said that she took the opportunity, the spare time offered by the nearly two years of necessary pause in public performances due to Covid-19, and did something she always wanted to do –write songs.

In that sense, Luna Manzanares said that she wrote the piece 'Todo de mí', based on the love story of two friends of her, Alberto Torres and his wife Yesica.

'Todo de mí' is the fourth track released from the album 'Luna Nueva'. Previously, Luna Manzanares released 'Ay amor', 'Viajera' and 'Muñeca de papel'.
