

Cuba rejects the U.S. media campaign against Russia

Havana, February 19 (RHC) Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodríguez rejected "the propagandistic and communicational hysteria unleashed by the U.S. government against Russia."

The Top Cuban diplomat tweeted that the island firmly opposes "the expansion of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) to the borders of that sister country".

Recently, the Vice President of the United States, Kamala Harris, threatened with a "swift, severe and united" response in case of a Russian invasion of Ukraine, an assumption repeatedly denied by Moscow.

Harris, who delivered the opening speech at the Munich Security Conference in Germany, referred to the "far-reaching financial sanctions and export controls" imposed on the Eurasian nation.

In an alarmist tone, the U.S. Vice-r President stated that "not since the end of the Cold War had this forum met under such terrible circumstances."

The Russian Foreign Minister, Sergey Lavrov, described the Western media news coverage of the "phantom war" against Ukraine as information terrorism.
