

Cuba welcomes participants of the 21st ALBA-TCP Summit

Havana, May 25 (RHC)-- The director-general for Latin America and the Caribbean of the Cuban Foreign Ministry, Eugenio Martínez Enríquez (left in the photo) received on Wednesday Sacha Llorenti, executive secretary of the Bolivarian Alliance for the Peoples of Our America-People's Trade Agreement (ALBA-TCP).

He also welcomed the Venezuelan deputy foreign ministers, who also arrived in Havana to participate in the 21st Summit of that integration mechanism scheduled for Friday on the 27th.

According to a note published on the Cubaminrex site, during the meeting, the nations that make up ALBA-TCP will share common development strategies and analyze the regional political situation.
