

Climate activists in Davos demand world leaders act on climate change

Image not found or type unknown

In Davos, Switzerland, climate activists on the sidelines of the World Economic Forum are demanding world leaders act urgently on the climate.

Davos, May 27 (RHC)-- In Davos, Switzerland, climate activists on the sidelines of the World Economic Forum are demanding world leaders act urgently on the climate.

Kenyan environmentalist Elizabeth Wathuti told reporters that the environmental situation is at a crisis point and that it is past time to act. She pointed to the impact of climate change on the planet and "especially the rising food insecurity in the Horn of Africa."

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/289031-climate-activists-in-davos-demand-world-leaders-act-on-climate-change>

Radio Habana Cuba