

Díaz-Canel presides over conclusions of visit to Ciego de Ávila

Morón, Ciego de Avila, Jun 9 (RHC)--The First Secretary of the Cuban Communist Party, Miguel Díaz-Canel Bermúdez, presided over on Thursday the conclusions of the comprehensive visit made by the Secretariat of that organization and its auxiliary structure to the province of Ciego de Avila.

The review, carried out from May 16 to 19 last, covered the territory's ten municipalities to evaluate the state of compliance with the ideas, Concepts, and Guidelines of the 8th Congress of the PCC, held in April 2021.

During the visit with directors, militants and people analyzed the functioning of the grassroots organizations, the intermediate leadership bodies, and the attention to the communities with more significant complexities.

It was also reviewed the fulfillment of the measures to dynamize the entrepreneurial system to promote agricultural productivity and its commercialization, as well as to encourage the professional improvement of the workers.
