

Iranian Nuclear Talks Extended Until November

Vienna, July 21 (RHC)-- Iran, the United States and five other countries have agreed to extend talks on Iran's nuclear program for another four months after failing to meet a Sunday deadline.

Last week, U.S. President Barack Obama said Iran had met its commitments under an interim deal, but said "some significant gaps" still remained.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/29039-iranian-nuclear-talks-extended-until-november>

Radio Habana Cuba