

Prominent Haitian reporter survives shooting as another journalist found dead

Image not found or type unknown

In Haiti, well-known investigative journalist Roberson Alphonse is hospitalized in stable condition after being attacked by gunmen Tuesday in Port-au-Prince. Alphonse works at the daily newspaper Le Nouvelliste and the radio station Magik9.

Port-au-Prince, October 28 (RHC)-- In Haiti, well-known investigative journalist Roberson Alphonse is hospitalized in stable condition after being attacked by gunmen Tuesday in Port-au-Prince. Alphonse works at the daily newspaper Le Nouvelliste and the radio station Magik9.

Also on Tuesday, a journalist who had gone missing was found dead. Garry Tess previously hosted a political talk show in the southern city of Les Cayes.

The Inter American Press Association said this year has been one of the deadliest on record for members of the press.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/303199-prominent-haitian-reporter-survives-shooting-as-another-journalist-found-dead>

Radio Habana Cuba