Gathered in front of the historic site, university students set important goals.

Havana, Dec 18 (RHC) The 10th Congress of the Federation of University Students (FEU) was inaugurated this Sunday morning, in the areas surrounding the Museum of the Revolution, in Havana, a space that synthesizes the university's rebelliousness and the dedication of the young people who forged the mystique of the organization.

On her Twitter account, @AlmaMater_Rev reports that FEU president Karla Santana Rodriguez said that university students have been at all times willing to raise the flags of struggle always together with our people.

She added that it is urgent to transform the ways and means by which the Federation morally and spiritually raises its students.

Today, the plenary session is expected to be held in which the FEU candidates for deputies to the National Assembly of People's Power will be proposed.

Tomorrow Monday 19, topics such as organic functioning, teaching and research, university extension, and communication and international relations will be discussed in commissions.

The plenary session and closing are scheduled for the 20th at the Convention Palace in Havana when the Federation will celebrate its 100 years of existence.
