

Domadores of Cuba to two more professional circuits

Image not found or type unknown

Domadores of Cuba to two more professional circuits

Havana, February 27 (RHC)-- Erislandy Alvarez and Roniel Iglesias will take on the next commitments of Domadores de Cuba in professional boxing circuits.

Alvarez, undefeated in one outing, will take the ring on March 3 in the Venezuelan city of Maracaibo to face local Brandon Cordobez (7-3), 2 KO.

It will be an eight-round bout in the 135-pound division, which will become a prelude to the third presentation of the two-time Olympic champion Iglesias (2-0) in those scenarios.

The 2019 world champion will fight two days later in Tijuana, Mexico, also in eight rounds, against the immaculate host Maurico Gutierrez (7-0), owner of 5 knockouts in the 147-pound division.

Domadores de Cuba has 17 wins and one loss since his debut under the coordinated work between the Cuban federation and the Golden Ring company, which represents him in that field.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/deportes/315082-domadores-of-cuba-to-two-more-professional-circuits>

Radio Habana Cuba