

Cuban cyclist stands out in the Tour of Flanders

Havana, April 4 (RHC)-- The famous Cuban cyclist Arlenis Sierra was Team Movistar's best rider in Belgium's classic Tour of Flanders, where she was the tenth to cross the finish line, 00:03:38 minutes behind the winner, the phenomenal Belgian Lotte Kopecky, who clocked 4:06:11 hours.

Movistar's Dutch Annemiek van Vleuten, the world's best router in recent years, and the German Liane Lippert finished 27th and 30th, respectively.

After receiving seven stitches for a fall in the previous Sunday's race, Sierra rode the 158 kilometers of this event that gathered 206 cyclists from 24 elite clubs. (Source: ACN)

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/deportes/318723-cuban-cyclist-stands-out-in-the-tour-of-flanders>

Radio Habana Cuba