Foreign Minister of Singapore will travel to Cuba

Havana, April 17 (RHC) – Foreign Minister of Singapore Vivian Balakrishnan will make an official visit to Cuba starting next April 19.

During his stay, Balakrishnan will hold talks with Cuban authorities and carry out other activities of interest.

Havana and Singapore have developed diplomatic ties since 1997, extended with the opening, on November 4, 2015, of the Cuban embassy in that city-State. (Source: Prensa Latina)
