Cuba and ALBA-TCP hold fruitful meeting in Venezuela

Havana, April 23 (RHC) - The Secretary General of the Bolivarian Alliance for the Peoples of Our America-Peoples' Trade Treaty (ALBA-TCP), Félix Plasencia, today considered the meeting with Josefina Vidal, Cuban Vice Minister of Foreign Affairs, fruitful.

In his Twitter account, the manager wrote that they talked about the achievements and challenges of ALBA-TCP. Images of the dialogue also showed the presence of the Cuban ambassador in Venezuela, Dagoberto Rodríguez.

Vidal described the meeting with Plasencia as excellent, in which they discussed "ideas to continue consolidating integration in #ALBAUnida on the basis of solidarity, complementarity and cooperation."

The ALBA-TCP emerged on December 14, 2004 at the proposal of commanders Fidel Castro (1926-2016) and Hugo Chávez (1954-2013). It is made up of Cuba, Venezuela, Bolivia, Nicaragua, Antigua and Barbuda, Dominica, Granada , Saint Kitts and Nevis, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, and Saint Lucia. (Source: Prensa Latina)
