

Mobilizations continue against designated president of Peru

"The people united will never be defeated", is one of the slogans raised by Peruvians. | Photo: CGTP Peru

Lima, July 21 (RHC)-- Peruvian social organizations, movements and demonstrators continue with the mobilization in Lima to demand the resignation of the designated president Dina Boluarte and the closure of Congress.

"The people united will never be defeated," "Dina murderer, narco criminal", "The people repudiate the usurper Dina", are some of the slogans raised by the demonstrators, who marched on the Palace of Justice.

The Peruvian Ombudsman's Office said that they are deployed in different points of the city of Lima and also in the Central 105 of the Peruvian Police in order to monitor the development of the current demonstrations and guarantee the right to peaceful protest of the citizens.

Meanwhile, the National Coordinator of Human Rights of Peru (CNDDHH) from its Twitter account pointed out that last night at the door of the Alfonso Ugarte Police Station, located in downtown Lima, undercover police harassed journalists and lawyers of the human rights organization, who went to the police station to denounce detentions.

Similarly, the Women's sector of the New Peru Yesterday Movement recalled yesterday's mobilization. "Yesterday, we took to the streets to protest against the dictatorship of Dina Boluarte and her criminal coalition, against the Congress and for the memory of our murdered brothers and sisters."

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/329055-mobilizations-continue-against-designated-president-of-peru>

Radio Habana Cuba