

Cuban president at United Nations for General Debate

Cuban president at the UN headquarters for General Debate

Havana, September 19 (RHC) -- Cuban President Miguel Díaz-Canel is at the United Nations headquarters building in New York City to participate in the General Debate of the 78th Period of Sessions of the UN General Assembly.

According to the presidency's website, Díaz-Canel will be the speaker, and will speak on behalf of Cuba and the G-77.

The high level segment of the United Nations General Assembly will run until September 26.
(Source: ACN)

Radio Habana Cuba