

Activists protest weapons for Gaza genocide at Missouri Boeing plant

Image not found or type unknown

A large, thick gray 'X' is drawn over a white square area, which is itself set within a larger gray rectangular frame. The 'X' is composed of two diagonal lines that intersect in the center of the white square. This graphic serves as a placeholder for an image that is either missing or has an unknown type.

St. Louis, November 22 (RHC)-- In the U.S. state of Missouri, protesters rallied at the gates of a Boeing manufacturing plant near St. Louis, demanding an end to the use of U.S.-made weapons in the killing of Palestinian civilians in Gaza.

Protesters say the factory produces Joint Direct Attack Munitions and GBU-39 small-diameter bombs supplied to Israel's Air Force.

In other news, the Detroit City Council on Tuesday became the largest U.S. city to pass a resolution calling for a ceasefire. Polls show some two-thirds of Americans support a ceasefire.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/340117-activists-protest-weapons-for-gaza-genocide-at-missouri-boeing-plant>

Radio Habana Cuba