

Colombian senator Piedad Córdoba dies at 68

Bogota, January 21 (RHC)-- This Saturday, January 20, Senator Piedad Córdoba, of the Historic Pact, died as a result of a heart attack.

The senator, recognized social fighter and great leader who was always in favor of social justice for the Colombian people, died in the city of Medellin at the age of 68.

The president of the multimedia platform teleSUR, Patricia Villegas, confirmed the news on her official X account, formerly Twitter, and in statements to the same news channel.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/344999-colombian-senator-piedad-cordoba-dies-at-68>

Radio Habana Cuba