

Biden administration approves attacks on Syria and Iraq

Washington, February 2 (RHC)-- The Pentagon has approved a series of strikes against targets inside Iraq and Syria in response to the recent attack on a U.S. military base in northern Jordan that killed three

U.S. soldiers and other attacks in the region.

Defense Secretary Lloyd Austin said the U.S. is working to avoid a wider Middle East conflict and is not seeking war with Iran. "How much Iran knew or didn't know, we don't know, but it really doesn't matter, because Iran sponsors these groups. It funds these groups."
