

Second day of the XIV International Congress University 2024

Image not found or type unknown

Havana, February 6 (RHC)-- The XIV International Congress on Higher Education University 2024 continues today with its program in the capital's Palacio de las Convenciones.

Central activities, exhibitions, specialized visits, workshops, lectures, forums, conferences, meetings of rectors and panels will be part of this second day of the event, which recently opened its doors to 564 delegates from more than 40 countries, including Cuba, 37 stands from 24 universities and 148 exhibitors.

Advances and perspectives of the contribution of Higher Education in the implementation and fulfillment of the 2030 Sustainable Development Goals, Higher Education and social transformation, Cuba-Russia and Cuba-Brazil Rectors' meeting, UNESCO's prospective for the Higher Education of the future. Vision from the Latin American and Caribbean context, are some of the topics to be addressed from the different rooms and spaces.

The event, which takes place in hybrid mode, both on-site and virtual, has 37 stands from different universities and among the most numerous representations are those of Brazil, Mexico, Ecuador, United States, Colombia, Hungary, Spain and Russia.

Also participating will be the sister nations of Venezuela, Mozambique, Uganda, Nigeria, Equatorial Guinea, Guyana, Zimbabwe, Paraguay and Chile.

Considered the largest of its kind in the country, the Congress offers the possibility of participation to all those interested, in addition to teachers, students, administrative staff, researchers, delegations, as well as the various organizations and prominent professors at national and international level. (Source: ACN)

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/346433-second-day-of-the-xiv-international-congress-university-2024>

Radio Habana Cuba