

Four Muslim Americans attacked in Texas while returning from Palestinian rights protest

Austin, February 6 (RHC)-- In the U.S. state of Texas, a man attacked four young Muslim Americans who were driving home from a protest for Palestinian rights in Austin Sunday. Three of the victims are Palestinian Americans, including a 23-year-old who was stabbed after the attacker pulled them out of the car.

Eye-witnesses say the suspect, who has been identified as Bert James Baker, yelled obscenities, including the N-word, and tried to rip off a keffiyeh hanging from the car.

The Council on American-Islamic Relations, CAIR, is calling on authorities to charge Baker with hate crimes, saying: "Those responsible for this violence must be prosecuted to the full extent of the law...and those fomenting the anti-Palestinian and anti-Muslim hate that leads to this violence must be condemned."

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/346460-four-muslim-americans-attacked-in-texas-while-returning-from-palestinian-rights-protest>

Radio Habana Cuba