

Hezbollah shells Israeli outpost after deadly drone strike in southern Lebanon

Image not found or type unknown

Hezbollah fighters hold flags as they attend the memorial of the resistance movement's late leader Sheik Abbas al-Mousawi, who was killed by an Israeli airstrike in 1992, in Tefahta village, southern Lebanon. (Photo by AP)

Beirut, May 26 (RHC)-- Fighters from the Lebanese Hezbollah resistance movement have conducted an operation against an Israeli military outpost in the 1948 occupied territories after the Tel Aviv regime launched a deadly drone strike against an area in southern Lebanon.

Lebanon's al-Manar television channel reported that the group targeted the al-Abbad outpost in the northern part of the occupied lands on Sunday afternoon, and destroyed technical equipment there.

Hezbollah claimed the attack in a statement, saying it had shelled an Israeli military outpost and soldiers stationed in the area "in response to the assassination carried out by the Zionist enemy in the town of Naqoura and the injury of civilians."

According to the Israeli military, a total of 15 rockets crossed the border in the attack. No injuries were reported. Sirens had sounded in the Israeli border communities of Betzet, Hanita, Rosh Hanikra, and Shlomi.

Earlier in the day, one person was killed in an Israeli drone strike on a motorcycle in southern Lebanon. The identity of the person killed in the coastal town of Naqoura was not immediately known.

There was no immediate comment from the Israeli army on the aerial assault.

Israel launched the war on Gaza on October 7th after Palestinian resistance groups carried out a surprise retaliatory operation into the occupied territories. Concomitantly with the war, the regime has been enforcing a near-total siege on the coastal territory, which has reduced the flow of foodstuffs, medicine, electricity, and water into the Palestinian territory into a trickle.

The Israeli war has killed at least 35,984 people, most of them women, children, and adolescents. Another 80,643 Palestinians have sustained injuries as well.

The Israeli military has also been carrying out attacks against the Lebanese territory since then, prompting retaliatory strikes from Hezbollah in support of the Palestinian people in the Gaza Strip.

The movement has vowed to keep up its retaliatory operations as long as the Tel Aviv regime continues its onslaught on Gaza.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/355684-hezbollah-shells-israeli-outpost-after-deadly-drone-strike-in-southern-lebanon>

Radio Habana Cuba