

U.S. Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas finally discloses details of luxury gifts from multi-billionaire donor

Image not found or type unknown

Washington, June 10 (RHC)-- U.S. Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas has finally acknowledged taking more free vacations paid for by billionaire conservative megadonor Harlan Crow.

In a court filing in Washington, DC, Thomas disclosed he accepted a pair of trips in 2019 — one to Indonesia and another to the Bohemian Grove in California.

Last year, ProPublica revealed Thomas had failed to disclose at least 38 luxury trips gifted by Crow and three other right-wing billionaires dating back decades.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/357021-us-supreme-court-justice-clarence-thomas-finally-discloses-details-of-luxury-gifts-from-multi-billionaire-donor>

Radio Habana Cuba