

Six People Killed in 3rd U.S. Drone Strike in Pakistan in Three Days

Islamabad, October 7 (RHC)-- A U.S. drone strike has killed six people in northwest Pakistan. Unnamed intelligence officials told Reuters the target was a suspected militant training camp in the Shawal area of South Waziristan.

Tuesday's attack was at least the third U.S. strike on the area in three days. The two earlier strikes killed five people each on Sunday and Monday.
