

Cuba and Cyprus to Boost Links in Agriculture

Havana, October 23 (RHC-ACN) -- The Cuban Ambassador to Cyprus, Aramis Fuente held talks with Cypriot Agriculture, Food and Environment Minister Nicos Kouyialis on the establishment of joint projects for agricultural production and environmental protection.

The meeting also focused on different issues of bilateral interest as the two officials reiterated their government's to strengthen bilateral relations and economic partnership.

Over the past few months, Cuba and Cyprus have diversified cooperation links in healthcare and biotechnology.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/37205-cuba-and-cyprus-to-boost-links-in-agriculture>

Radio Habana Cuba