

German protesters condemn right-wing leader Friedrich Merz for working with neo-Nazi party

Berlin, February 5 (RHC)-- In Germany, 160,000 demonstrators rallied at Berlin's Brandenburg Gate Sunday to condemn conservative leader Friedrich Merz for collaborating with the extreme-right Alternative for Germany party to push an anti-immigrant measure.

The bill ultimately failed after members of Merz's own CDU party refused to support it. Merz has been favored to become Germany's next chancellor in the upcoming elections.
