Washington, March 28 (RHC)-- U.S. Secretary of State Marco Rubio confirmed he revoked the visa of Rumeysa Ozturk, a Tufts Ph.D. student who was abducted on the streets of Somerville, Massachusetts, this week by plainclothes federal agents.

Ozturk was targeted for writing a student op-ed about Tufts's response to Gaza solidarity protests.

Rubio claimed that her case is part of a much larger scheme. Marco Rubio said: "It might be more than 300 at this point. We do it every day. Every time I find one of these lunatics, I take away their visa."

"... At some point, I hope we run out [of students with visas] because we've gotten rid of all of them. But we're looking every day for these lunatics that are tearing things up."
