

Cuban foreign minister condemns terrorist plans against Venezuela

Havana, March 28 (RHC)-- Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodríguez on Friday condemned the preparation of violent actions against the security of the government and the integrity of Venezuelan society.

"We condemn terrorist plans against Venezuela," the foreign minister stated on X.

According to the head of Cuban diplomacy, the purpose of these projects "is to attack the electrical system and other strategic infrastructure" of the South American nation. "We call for respect for Venezuelan peace, stability and sovereignty," he stated on the social platform.

Bruno Rodriguez also reiterated the island's solidarity "with the Bolivarian and Chavista Revolution and its civil-military union."
