

U.S. judge pauses order against Trump in Abrego Garcia Case

Washington, April 25 (RHC)-- The U.S. federal judge overseeing the case of Kilmar Abrego Garcia, the Maryland father who was sent to a prison in El Salvador after an “administrative error,” granted the Trump administration an additional week to share what steps it is taking to ensure his return.

Meanwhile, Abrego Garcia’s wife had to be moved to a safe house after the Department of Homeland Security posted her address online, sharing a photo of a 2021 protective order that featured her home address.
